

Results from the Subaru/XMM-Newton Deep Field

Chris Simpson¹ on behalf of the SXDS Team

¹ Liverpool John Moores University

Abstract

I will present some key science results from the Subaru/XMM-Newton Deep Field, which boasts the deepest X-ray, optical, and near-infrared data of any of the square degree survey fields. In light of the aims of the conference, I will focus on the growth of massive galaxies, and the nature of the faint radio source population and their contribution to the Cosmic X-ray Background.